SCHOOL OF PHYSICAL THERAPY

DOCTOR OF PHYSICAL THERAPY

Earn a Doctor of Physical Therapy!

- Three year, nine semester program
- Residential and Service Learning
- Curriculum emphasizes Clinical Decision-Making and Evidence-Based Practice

Physical therapy education is changing to meet the demands for physical therapy in the future. Touro University Nevada offers an innovative curriculum that incorporates updated theory, techniques, and approaches to physical therapy practice.

Entry-Level Doctor of Physical Therapy Degree

For students who hold a Bachelor's Degree and want to become physical therapists, Touro University Nevada will admit its inaugural class in July 2009 pending approval by the Commission on Accreditation of Physical Therapy Education (CAPTE). Accreditation is required for graduates to be eligible to sit for the National Physical Therapy Examination for licensure.

Touro University Nevada offers the opportunity to learn and grow in a vibrant educational environment. Be a member of a team that includes fellow students and faculty from the School of Physical Therapy as well as from other outstanding professional programs: Osteopathic Medicine, Nursing, Physician Assistant Studies, Occupational Therapy, and Education.
