Post-Professional Doctor of Physical Therapy Degree

Physical therapy education is working to meet the challenge of the APTA's Vision 2020. Touro University Nevada will offer practicing clinicians an innovative curriculum leading to the Doctor of Physical Therapy. This new program incorporates updated theory, techniques, and approaches to physical therapy practice recommended since Vision 2020 was adopted in 2000. Touro University Nevada will admit the inaugural class in November 2008. Choose to expand your knowledge with experienced faculty, in a program with flexibility for the working professional.

Become a member of an interactive online community with fellow students and faculty at Touro University Nevada. We'll assess your prior experience and give you credit for professional development, while designing a personalized program to meet your goal of earning the DPT. This fully on-line program is for YOU!

To apply, simply complete the TUN application available at www.tu.edu/PT. Qualified applicants will be contacted for additional information if necessary.
